

Something Better with Pro:Idiom[®]

LG supplies premium televisions for healthcare facilities looking for ways to expand in-room entertainment options for their patients. With sleek styling and advanced technologies, LG's UL hospital grade listed televisions features Pro:Idiom Digital Rights Management (DRM) to deliver HD content to the patient room. Facilities can offer popular HD programming such as sports and movie channels in high definition with Pro:Idiom as well as Video on Demand and Pay-per-view services.

Distribution of High Definition content such as content from DIRECTV[®] without copy protection is prohibited by most content programmers in the market. As one of the most widely accepted systems used in Healthcare and Hospitality, Pro:Idiom is a critical component required to unlock HD content from DIRECTV.

Not prepared to make the leap into HD? LG Healthcare TVs will be ready for HD when you are. LG's Healthcare TVs keep your options open for future upgrades by eliminating need to purchase Pro:Idiom set top boxes for each in-room television.
